THE DEAD EMPEROR.

Arrangements for the Return to St. Petersburg.

HONORS TO BE PAID ALONG THE ROUTE.

The Imperial Family to be Accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales—Gold and Silver Crowns in Place of Floral Tributes.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 5.—The Prince and Princess of Wales will accompany the imperial party on the way to St. Petersburg. It is likely that the body will be taken to Sebastopol instead of Odessa, and there be transferred to the Moscow train. Moscow will be reached probably on the 11th and St. Petersburg on the 13th. The imperial family will accompany it from the beginning to the end of the journey. The intention of exposing the body in Livadia Sunday was abandoned because the process of embalming it had not been finished. It is said to have been necessary to summon more embalmers from Moscow and Charkoff. When ready, the body will be placed in the chapel at Livadia.

There are rumors of a police order to close the vodka shops in towns along the route of the funeral train, and its enforcement is said to have caused trouble in several districts. The truth of these rumors cannot be ascertained.

The goldsmiths of St. Petersburg and Moscow are receiving innumerable orders for gold and silver memorial crowns and crosses. Gen. Vannowski, minister of war and an officer under the late czar at the capture of Rastchuk, has ordered a silver crown twenty-four inches in diameter. The inscription is to be: "To the chief of the army of Rastchuk, from the chief of his staff." Vannowski has obtained permission to place this crown on the emperor's crown.

ON RUSSIAN GROUND.

The Religious Services in Memory of Alexander III. to be Held at the Legation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Prince Cantacuzene is thoroughly appreciative of Bishop Parek's courtesy in requesting the Episcopal clergy of Washington to offer the use of one of their churches to him for the religious services in memory of the Russian emperor which it is proposed to hold at the legation the latter part of this week. Several days ago Rev. Dr. Mackay Smith, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, offered to place that edifice at the disposal of the Russian minister, but the offer was declined.

Prince Cantacuzene said yesterday in explanation that it was desired to hold the services on Russian ground. For that reason the legation is the only fitting place, and they will be held there in conformity with the original programme.

The diplomatic corps, about ninety of whom are in the city, and President Cleveland and his cabinet will be the only persons present with the exception of Prince Cantacuzene and the members of the Russian legation.

The Amenities Exchanged.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 5.—In response to the message of condolence and sympathy sent to the czarina by President Casimir-Perier of France, her majesty yesterday caused the following to be telegraphed to M. Casimir-Perier:

"Accept my personal thanks for the cordial sympathy you have shown me in my cruel sorrow."

The czar telegraphed as follows to the municipal council of Caen: "Russia thanks you for your good wishes. Be assured that I have inherited from my beloved father his sympathies for France."

IN HONOR OF SACHS.

Nuremberg En Fete on the Anniversary of the Birth of the Great German Poet.

NUREMBERG, Nov. 5.—Hans Sachs, the German poet, was born at Nuremberg 400 years ago to-day. The city is celebrating the anniversary on a grand scale. Not a shop or school has been open since last evening. Visitors have filled the hotels and lodging houses and have packed the streets. Plugs were from every window and music is heard on every street corner.

A thousand persons attended the reception at the Rathaus yesterday, among them delegates from most European towns, colleges and royal societies. Prof. Goetze, the orator of the day, traced at length Sachs' influence upon the German language. After the oration the historic procession passed slowly through the principal streets.

Will Receive the Returns at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Private Secretary Thurber has invited the cabinet officers (with the exception of Secretary Lamont, who has gone away to vote) to spend the evening with him at the White House and get the election returns, which will be received at the executive telegraph office from various parts of the country.

The president will, in all probability, go out to his country home in the afternoon, according to his custom. If anything is reported to the gathering in the White House that is deemed of sufficient interest to the president, it may be sent out to him by the private telegraph line which connects his home at Woodley with his person.

Not Far Enough Away.

Benevolent Stranger (with subscription paper)—My friend, I am raising funds for the purpose of assisting the poor people of Timbuctoo to build and maintain an artificial ice factory. To the thoughtful mind there must always be something terrible in the reflection that the unfortunate people of that desert city, situated as it is at the southern border of the great Sahara and only eighteen degrees north of the equator on a dreary plain, where there is hardly vegetation enough to keep a camel from starving, are tortured the livelong year by heat and thirst, with no hope of relief unless civilization comes to their rescue with its resources and lightens the burden of their existence in their wretched, miserable—

Ordinary Citizen—I don't like to interrupt you, but there's a fire in a row of tenement houses in the next block. I ought to be there helping to—

Benevolent Stranger—O, there's no occasion for alarm. The wind isn't blowing in this direction. How much shall I put down for you in aid of the suffering people of Timbuctoo?—Chicago Tribune.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors that she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 129 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at King & Hubbard's Drug Store. THE Democrats are in favor of stimulating the importation of foreign goods, and the present tariff law was enacted for that purpose. This country cannot be prosperous and buy its manufactures from abroad.

MISS TILLIE KIMMERLY, of Macon, who for some time has developed indications of a failing mind, became violently insane within the past few days. She shows tendency to combativeness and destructiveness. Steps are being taken to commit her to an asylum.

NOVA SCOTIA coal can be loaded from the slopes at the mines right into vessels that can come directly to Decatur, Chicago, Milwaukee and Duluth, for 12½ cents a ton. Springer voted for free coal, and says he is in favor of free coal. Every vote cast for Springer by a coal miner is a vote against his own interests.

ADLAI STEVENSON tried to illustrate that the tariff is a tax by setting up a straw man from America who bought a suit of clothes in England and was forced to pay a duty of $39 before he could land his clothes. That man, like the Democratic party, was trying to rob American tailors and slipped up on it, and it follows that he did not try it the second time. In his case the McKinley law did just what it was intended to do: it protected the American artisan against the importation of foreign goods at the expense of American labor. This is what Stevenson objects to. He wants to see the American laborer lose his job unless he will work as cheap as the European laborer.

MANECKE CHOKED WATKINS

The Democratic Nominee For State Senator Makes a Brutal Assault Upon a Decatur Citizen.

The Disgraceful Scene Witnessed in a Saloon—What an Eye-Witness Says About It.

State Senator Manecke, the Democratic nominee for re-election in the 41st district, lost his temper to-day at McGinty's saloon, and became the aggressor in a disgraceful scene in the presence of a number of witnesses.

Frank M. Watkins, a Democrat, but not a supporter of Manecke, was the victim. He has served in the city council as a Democratic alderman from the Sixth Ward, and he was the Democratic assessor in 1893. He is small of stature and is no match physically for Mr. Manecke. Mr. Watkins was in the saloon in company with Alex McGorray, and both gentlemen were talking to together when Senator Manecke came in. Mr. Watkins greeted Mr. Manecke with a remark that nettled the senator. He said:

"Hello, Manecke, are you sober?" Immediately Manecke caught Watkins by the throat and jammed him up against the bar until Watkins got red in the face and his eyes bulged out. Mr. McGorray rushed to the rescue of Mr. Watkins and pulled Manecke away, at the same time saying:

"Here, Manecke, stop that. If you want to jump anybody take somebody of your size. I've said worse things about you many a time than Watkins has said."

"That's all right," Manecke replied. "You are a Republican and anything you may say is legitimate."

"Yes," responded McGorray, "and I'm a bigger man than Watkins, and that makes a big difference."

There was some more talk growing out of the Manecke assault on Watkins, and finally Manecke went away, hoping no doubt that the saloon episode would not get into print.

Later Mr. Watkins boldly declared that all along he had been opposed to Manecke but now he would go out and work against him. It is quite evident that Senator Manecke's choking methods of electioneering with Democrats of small stature known to be against him will not go down with Mr. Watkins who has many personal and political friends in Decatur and throughout the 41st district.

THE MAYOR AND TINCHER
Have a Little Scrap on a Street Corner—No Arrests.

Politics got pretty hot to-day at the corner of North Water and East Main streets, when Mayor Moffitt, Democrat, and Henry Tinch, Republican, got into a discussion on various phases of the local situation. Both gentlemen are bawling talkers when they get started, and as they warmed up the lie was passed several times, finally resulting in the mayor making a pass at Tinch with his open hand, just grazing the nurseryman's right cheek. Tinch made a jump toward the mayor to retaliate when Colonel Mathias and Marshal Lehman stepped between the two men stopping hostilities. The incident attracted quite a crowd. It was more talk than fight. No arrests.

THE Democrats are in favor of stimulating the importation of foreign goods, and the present tariff law was enacted for that purpose. This country cannot be prosperous and buy its manufactures from abroad.

MISS TILLIE KIMMERLY, of Macon, who for some time has developed indications of a falling mind, became violently insane within the past few days. She shows tendency to combativeness and destructiveness. Steps are being taken to commit her to an asylum.

NOVA SCOTIA coal can be loaded from the slopes at the mines right into vessels that can come directly to Decatur, Chicago, Milwaukee and Duluth, for 12 1/2 cents a ton. Springer voted for free coal, and says he is in favor of free coal. Every vote cast for Springer by a coal miner is a vote against his own interests.

ADAM STEVENSON tried to illustrate that the tariff is a tax by setting up a straw man from America who bought a suit of clothes in England and was forced to pay a duty of $39 before he could land his clothes. That man, like the Democratic party, was trying to rob American tailors and slipped up on it, and it follows that he did not try it the second time. In his case the McKinley law did just what it was intended to do: it protected the American artisan against the importation of foreign goods at the expense of American labor. This is what Stevenson objects to. He wants to see the American laborer lose his job unless he will work as cheap as the European laborer.

MANECKE CHOKED WATKINS

The Democratic Nominee For State Senator Makes a Brutal Assault Upon a Decatur Citizen.

The Disgraceful Scene Witnessed in a Saloon—What an Eye-Witness Says About It.

State Senator Manecke, the Democratic nominee for re-election in the first district, lost his temper to-day at McGinty's saloon, and became the aggressor in a disgraceful scene in the presence of a number of witnesses.

Frank M. Watkins, a Democrat, but not a supporter of Manecke, was the victim. He has served in the city council as a Democratic alderman from the Sixth Ward, and he was the Democratic assessor in 1893. He is small of stature and is no match physically for Mr. Manecke. Mr. Watkins was in the saloon in company with Alex McGorray, and both gentlemen were talking together when Senator Manecke came in.

Mr. Watkins greeted Mr. Manecke with a remark that nettled the senator. He said:

"Hello, Manecke, are you sober?"

Immediately Manecke caught Watkins by the throat and jammed him up against the bar until Watkins got red in the face and his eyes bulged out. Mr. McGorray rushed to the rescue of Mr. Watkins and pulled Manecke away, at the same time saying:

"Here, Manecke, stop that. If you want to jump anybody take somebody of your size. I've said worse things about you many a time than Watkins has said."

"That's all right," Manecke replied. "You are a Republican and anything you may say is legitimate."

"Yes," responded McGorray, "and I'm a bigger man than Watkins, and that makes a big difference."

There was some more talk growing out of the Manecke assault on Watkins, and finally Manecke went away, hoping no doubt that the saloon episode would not get into print.

Later Mr. Watkins boldly declared that all along he had been opposed to Manecke but now he would go out and work against him. It is quite evident that Senator Manecke's choking methods of electioneering with Democrats of small stature known to be against him will not go down with Mr. Watkins who has many personal and political friends in Decatur and throughout the first district.

THE MAYOR AND FINCHER

Have a Little Scrap on a Street Corner—No Arrests.

Politics got pretty hot to-day at the corner of North Water and East Main streets, when Mayor Moffitt, Democrat, and Henry Fincher, Republican, got into a discussion on various phases of the local situation. Both gentlemen are bickering talkers when they get started, and as they warmed up the lie was passed several times, finally resulting in the mayor making a pass at Fincher with his open hand, just grazing the nurseryman's right cheek. Fincher made a jump toward the mayor to retaliate when Colonel Mathias and Marshal Lehman stepped between the two men stopping hostilities. The incident attracted quite a crowd. It was more talk than fight. No arrests.

THE DEAD EMPEROR.

Arrangements for the Return to St. Petersburg.

HONORS TO BE PAID ALONG THE ROUTE.

The Imperial Family to be Accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales—Gold and Silver Crowns in Place of Floral Tributes.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—The Prince and Princess of Wales will accompany the imperial party on the way to St. Petersburg. It is likely that the body will be taken to Sebastopol instead of Odessa, and there be transferred to the Moscow train. Moscow will be reached probably on the 11th and St. Petersburg on the 13th. The imperial family will accompany it from the beginning to the end of the journey. The intention of exposing the body in Livadia Sunday was abandoned because the process of embalming it had not been finished. It is said to have been necessary to summon more embalmers from Moscow and Charkoff. When ready, the body will be placed in the chapel at Livadia. There are rumors of a police order to close the vodka shops in towns along the route of the funeral train, and its enforcement is said to have caused trouble in several districts. The truth of these rumors cannot be ascertained. The goldsmiths of St. Petersburg and Moscow are receiving innumerable orders for gold and silver memorial crowns and crosses. Gen. Vannowski, minister of war and an officer under the late czar at the capture of Rostchuk, has ordered a silver crown twenty-four inches in diameter. The inscription is to be: "To the chief of the army of Rostchuk, from the chief of his staff." Vannowski has obtained permission to place this crown on the emperor's crown.

ON RUSSIAN GROUND.

The Religious Services in Memory of Alexander III. to be Held at the Legation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Prince Cantacuzene is thoroughly appreciative of Bishop Paret's courtesy in requesting the Episcopal clergy of Washington to offer the use of one of their churches to him for the religious services in memory of the Russian emperor which it is proposed to hold at the legation the latter part of this week. Several days ago Rev. Dr. Mackay Smith, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, offered to place that edifice at the disposal of the Russian minister, but the offer was declined.

Prince Cantacuzene said yesterday in explanation that it was desired to hold the services on Russian ground. For that reason the legation is the only fitting place, and they will be held there in conformity with the original programme.

The diplomatic corps, about ninety of whom are in the city, and President Cleveland and his cabinet will be the only persons present with the exception of Prince Cantacuzene and the members of the Russian legation.

The Amenities Exchanged.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—In response to the message of condolence and sympathy sent to the czarina by President Casimir-Perier of France, her majesty yesterday caused the following to be telegraphed to M. Casimir-Perier: "Accept my personal thanks for the cordial sympathy you have shown me in my cruel sorrow." The czar telegraphed as follows to the municipal council of Caen: "Russia thanks you for your good wishes. Be assured that I have inherited from my beloved father his sympathies for France."

IN HONOR OF SACHS.

Nuremberg En Fete on the Anniversary of the Birth of the Great German Poet.

Nuremberg, Nov. 5.—Haas Sachs, the German poet, was born at Nuremberg 400 years ago to-day. The city is celebrating the anniversary on a grand scale. Not a shop or school has been open since last evening. Visitors have filled the hotels and lodging houses and have packed the streets. Flags wave from every window and music is heard on every street corner.

A thousand persons attended the reception at the Rathaus yesterday, among them delegates from most Bavarian towns, colleges and royal academies. Prof. Goetze, the orator of the day, traced at length Sachs' influence upon the German language. After the oration the historic procession passed slowly through the principal streets.

Will Receive the Returns at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Private Secretary Thurber has invited the cabinet officers (with the exception of Secretary Lamont, who has gone away to vote) to spend the evening with him at the White House and get the election returns, which will be received at the executive telegraph office from various parts of the country.

The president will, in all probability, go out to his country home in the afternoon, according to his custom. If anything is reported to the gathering in the White House that is deemed of sufficient interest to the president, it may be sent out to him by the private telegraph line which connects him with Woodley with his personal assistants at the Executive Mansion.

Not Far Enough Away.

Benevolent Stranger (with subscription paper)—My friend, I am raising funds for the purpose of assisting the poor people of Timbuctoo to build and maintain an artificial ice factory. To the thoughtful mind there must always be something terrible in the reflection that the unfortunate people of that desert city, situated as it is at the southern border of the great Sahara and only eighteen degrees north of the equator on a dreary plain, where there is hardly vegetation enough to keep a camel from starving, are tortured the livelong year by heat and thirst, with no hope of relief unless civilization comes to their rescue with its resources and lightens the burden of their existence in their wretched, miserable—

Ordinary Citizen—I don't like to interrupt you, but there's a fire in a row of tenement houses in the next block. I ought to be there helping to—

Benevolent Stranger—O, there's no occasion for alarm. The wind isn't blowing in this direction. How much shall I put down for you in aid of the suffering people of Timbuctoo?—Chicago Tribune.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors that she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at King & Hubbard's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Sixty persons are known to have been killed in the earthquakes in Mexico while the damage to property is enormous.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.

FREDERICK LOVEJOY, vice president of the Adams Express Company, died in New York as the result of an apoplectic stroke.

Ballard's Snow Lintiment.

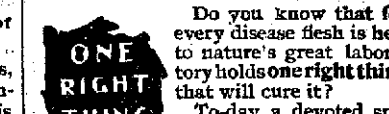

Mrs. Hamilton, Cambridge, Ill., says: "I had the rheumatism so bad I could not raise my hand to my head. Ballard's Snow Lintiment has entirely cured me. I take pleasure in informing my neighbors and friends what it has done for me." Chas. Handley, clerk for Lay & Lyman, Kewanee, Ill., advises us that Snow Lintiment cured him of Rheumatism. Why not try it? It will surely do you good. It cures all inflammation, Wounds, Sores, Cuts, Sprains, etc. Sold by C. H. Dawson, druggist. d&w

ABOUT 12 o'clock to-night the great party of reform will look a good deal as if it had been run through an "act of perjury and dishonor."

They say that Gresham was sick and was unable to go to Chicago to vote. Sickness will not prove the primary reason why Gresham did not vote. Like Grover Cleveland, Gresham was not registered, and for that reason these two "Queen Lids" did not vote.

THE Decatur Review refers to the REPUBLICAN, the only religious journal in the city, as "narrow, partisan and spiteful." If the Review will promise to change base on this as it did on taxing the poor man's sugar it will save itself some remorse of conscience.

THE new tariff act will prove a lamentable failure as a revenue getter. It cannot be otherwise. In the first place, the stimulation of foreign importations must make idleness and low wages here and these things destroy the power of our people to buy or consume. In other words, it destroys our market and must, for this reason, destroy the power of the government to accumulate revenue.

SINCE the stupidity of the Democratic congress in abrogating the reciprocity contracts made with foreign countries under the Harrison administration has resulted in Germany putting an embargo on American cattle, the administration is blustering about putting an embargo on German horses. This is an interesting predicament for a party that accepted contributions from German manufacturers to aid in carrying the country for Democracy in 1892.

THE Democratic party has been tried and found wanting, and the American people are not to be deceived by partisan premonitions of unexampled prosperity as the result of the policy of "party perjury and party dishonor." Everybody will rejoice if the feeling of temporary relief experienced by the business classes over the cessation of tariff uncertainty be followed by permanent improvement of business; but the people now know that Republican times were prosperous times because the party was competent to govern the country and to adhere to broad, patriotic policies, and that Democracy is responsible for the last two years of commercial depression and stagnation.

Has it ever occurred to Grover Cleveland—who sees in free raw materials "changed conditions that would carry to every humble home in the land the blessings of increased comfort and cheaper living"—that the commonest of all our raw materials, cotton, is now free? Has he ever observed that foreign manufacturers of cotton goods buy American cotton, pay the expense of its transportation by rail to the seaboard, of its shipment across the ocean, and again by rail to the factories of England, France, Germany and Austria, and are still able annually to ship to and sell in this country manufactured cotton goods to the value of $30,000,000? How much does free raw material count for us in our export cotton trade when weighed against the palper wages of Europe? No free-trader has ever yet been able to answer this question, and Cleveland could not do it if he should try.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, 1894.

Whether it was conscience that made Secretary Carlisle act, or the order of Mr. Cleveland, is immaterial. He has acted, and Mr. Morton's undercoaching was unjustly arrested by an overzealous Democratic official and condemned to deportation by another, on the flimsy pretext that he had been brought to the United States in violation of the alien contract law, is a free man. This action was only taken after the use of an amount of red tape, which under the circumstances was little short of disgraceful to all who had anything to do with the matter. Before Mr. Carlisle acted the case was formally referred to the attorney-general for legal opinion and was discussed at a cabinet meeting, and yet his decision that the man was a domestic servant would have been arrived at by school boy in one minute after the question was put to him. The fact of the matter is that the administration has been made ashamed of the whole business by the general condemnation of such poanut methods of trying to make capital against Mr. Morton which this arrest has received from reputable newspapers regardless of politics.

The good things promised with the new tariff law are slow in making their appearance, but some of the bad things it has brought are very much in evidence. For instance, according to the official figures, the public debt of the United States increased more than thirteen million of dollars during the month of October—to be exact, $13,680,854. The Treasury surplus which the country was assured would soon be accumulated under the new tariff may come in time, but no indications of it are in sight yet, unless one wears peculiarly constructed spectacles.

"I notice," said an Indianapolis man, who is in Washington on private business, "that Gen. Harrison has been letting the public get a little glimpse of a part of his mental make up that only those fortunate enough to be on terms of personal intimacy with him have known he possessed. I refer to his ability as a humorist of the refined, Oliver Wendell Holmes sort, which bubbled up in several parts of his recent New York speech, which, by the way, has never been excelled in a single speech as a concise statement of the difference between the Republican and Democratic parties. His using the grasshopper, because nobody knows in what direction it will next jump, and which doesn't itself know, to illustrate the position of the Democratic party on the great question of the day, was one of the apt hits of the campaign, and I predict that the term 'grasshoppers' will stick to the Democrats during the next presidential campaign, and longer, if that party survives another national election."

THE DAILY MENU.

Danger of Falling Into a Rut in the Preparation.

So much of health depends upon having good food in proper variety, that the question of the daily menu is an important one to every housekeeper. Miss Frances Willard is said to have recovered her strength and vigor from the English custom, adopted by her during her recent visit, of taking five meals a day. It must be understood, however, that of these five meals at least two were but slight refectations sandwiched between more serious affairs. Five o'clock tea, when limited to a single refreshing cup, accompanied by thin bread and butter, and perhaps a salted wafer or a bit of sponge-cake, takes off the edge of hunger, but does not interfere with the full enjoyment of dinner two hours later. Supper before bedtime, if consisting of a very light repast, often induces sleep and gives a refreshing repose they need. We Americans, women especially, are apt to eat less than we should, and physicians frequently suggest that food, taken at intervals and in small quantities will do much toward toning and building up a physical system which has run down.

But whether we follow Miss Willard's example or not, we who are charged with catering for our families know that it is no trifling order three meals a day seven days a week three hundred and sixty-five days a year. Many of us break down at this point, wearying of the monotony of our task, and so far as we are concerned we grow so indifferent to our own tables that any meals taste better to us than those which come from our kitchens.

"I always eat more when away from home than when there," said a farmer's wife, not long ago, addressing a city boarder. "By the time I have thought what to have, and seen it cooked, my interest in the thing is gone."

This was very natural. But even when a woman does not cook with her own hands or personally supervise every part of the process of dinner getting, she must, if she keeps house, arrange the details, select the viands, and make up the daily bill of fare.

Her great danger is that she may fall into a trodden rut, and as too many do, fancy if of no special importance whether or not her meals are varied. To a woman of little imagination and small capacity will permit Sunday's roast to appear and reappear on the table in the form of cold meat, growing scrappier and less attractive at every fresh presentation. After the second entrance upon the scene of any dish, fish, fowl, or a skillful cook should proceed to metamorphose it so that it shall bear little resemblance to its original form. Transformations of dishes are often so appetizing as to be preferred by the epicure to the first estate of the edible; but it goes without saying that brains and pains are needed to produce satisfactory results. Intelligence tells in housekeeping and catering as much as in any other department of work known to mankind or womankind.—Harper's Bazar.

Their Work Appreciated.

That the afflicted in this city and surrounding country appreciate the good work done by the great German and English doctors the past year is shown by the increased patronage the doctors are having each succeeding visit. To accommodate all who may want to see them they will remain two days on their coming visit. They will be at St. Nicholas hotel, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 6 and 7, 8:30 a. m. till 9 p. m.

Election Day.

To-day opens bright and beautiful and the indications are that a greater vote will be polled than at any off year election since 1882. The people have become thoroughly aroused. Two years of Democratic rule and Democratic legislation has developed a wide chasm between Democratic promises and Democratic action. They have also learned by this experience that there is a substantial measure of business in politics, a fact that had become blunted by the repeated asseverations of all classes of campaigners opposed to the Republican party to the effect that no matter what party is in power, the business of the country would move along just the same. The experience of two years has shown that the basis upon which business has been done for 30 years cannot be undermined, as proposed by the Democratic party, without prostrating business and forcing men into idleness and destroying the consuming power of the people.

The discovery of these facts by a sad experience has caused the people to do more thinking about their politics than they have done since the contests growing out of the attempt to dissolve the union. For these reasons a large vote will be cast in every state in the Union north of Mason and Dixon's line and perhaps in some of the southern states as well. The Republicans confidently expect great victories, and the local organization has engaged the tabernacle where they will assemble to-night to hear the returns.

A BIG VOTE.

The People Giving Their Verdict at the Polls To-day.

To-day tells the story. The people are at the polls casting their ballots, and to-night the verdict will become generally known as to which party got the best of experience and argument in the campaign. The vote in Decatur going by districts up to the hour of closing press was as follows:

First, Total	346	women, 15
Second, "	340	" 20
Third, "	345	" 38
Fourth, "	350	" 9
Fifth, "	340	" 12
Sixth, "	337	" 10
Seventh, "	339	" 38
Eighth, "	336	" 25
Ninth, "	325	" 13
Tenth, "	320	" 3
Eleventh, "	320	" 4
Twelfth, "	320	" 10
Thirteenth, "	320	" 10
Fourteenth, "	320	" 10
Total	4407	337

The polls will close at 5 o'clock. The total number of votes registered were 6,500.

Transit of Mercury.

The most important astronomical event for the year is predicted for Saturday, November 10, at which time the planet Mercury will make a transit across the face of the sun. This phenomenon occurs only once in seven years on the average, so that not many opportunities to observe it come in a lifetime. The amateur as well as the professional astronomer will be expected to make the most of this opportunity. This transit will be visible in North and South America and conditions will be favorable for observation in the United States. The planet will be visible as a round, very black spot, distinguishable from sun spots by its roundness and color. If a ring of light encircles it on its entrance or exit this will be evidence of an extensive atmosphere on the planet.

Fire in a Paint Shop.

There was a smart fire in the paint shop of the Co-Operating Painting and Decorating company at 228 West Main street this afternoon. It was a still alarm and the firemen who were conveniently near were quickly at the scene. The fire was among the paints and oils in the back room of the frame building, and it took some hard fighting to get the fire under control. The damage to stock was considerable and the building, which is the property of Andrew Heminger, of Cerro Gordo, will need extensive repairs. Loss on stock, $300. Charles Brennan, owner.

JOSEPH C. VITZEL, president of the failed Cass county bank of Atlantic, Iowa, was convicted of fraudulent banking.

For instance, Mrs. Chas. Rogers, of Bay City, Mich., accidentally spilled scalding water over her little boy. She promptly applied De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, giving instant relief. It is a wonderfully good salve for burns, bruises, sores, and a sure cure for Piles. C. H. Dawson.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES.

Warms Turned in Simultaneously from Seven Cotton-Laden Steamers.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 6.—Between 6 o'clock last evening and midnight alarms of fire were turned in from seven cotton-laden steamers lying in the harbor here. The fires on most of the steamers were small and were put out without serious damage, but no explanation of their origin can be discovered.

The vessels reporting fires in their cotton holds were the Skidby, Baltimore City, Castle Garth, Stag, Delgarth, Petunia and Armenia. All of the fires are now out except those on the Skidby, Stag and Armenia. The loss so far is $50,000 insured. Considerable cotton has been lightered from the vessel.

The Fire Under Complete Control.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 6.—The fire on the Armenia was slight and was soon extinguished. All the fires are now extinguished except that on the Skidby, which is under complete control. No estimate of the loss is yet obtainable.

Heavy Damage Suits Against a Chicago Firm.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Suit for $125,000 damage was begun yesterday in the circuit court here by Louis Ritz & Co., of Hamburg, Germany, agents for manufacturing exporters, against the members of the late firm of Dickinson Bros. & King. The exporters were heavy losers by shipping cement to the defendants in 1993, when the firm passed into the hands of a receiver, the drafts in payment being dishonored.

Death of the Widow of Mysterious "Number One."

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Frank Byrnes, widow of alleged mysterious "Number One" of the Phoenix park murders in Dublin, died here yesterday morning. She had been a paralytic since the birth of her first child in jail in England. Two children survive her. Byrnes died February 10 last.

According to the Utah statutes Thiede was given his choice as to the manner of his death, whether by shooting or hanging. He broke down and refused to make a choice and the judge sentenced him to be hanged.

OUR PAPER MONEY,

While the Product of Artistic Skill in Execution,

IS LACKING IN THE MATTER OF DESIGN,

Which the Bureau of Engraving and Printing Proposes Now to Correct—
—Civil Service in the Bureau—
—The Postage Stamp Supply.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Mr. Claude M. Johnson, chief of the bureau of engraving and printing, has submitted his annual report to the secretary of the treasury. Discussing the printing of bank notes he says:

"Artistic skill applicable to the production of bank notes, bonds, etc., has not advanced with time. Bank notes prepared twenty-four years ago are as finely engraved as those of today. The bank notes produced by this bureau and by the bank note companies of the country appear to have reached the highest standard of engraving and printing, but the designs, as a rule, are weak and meaningless. The conventional design for bank notes, which has been used for many years, appears to be wholly lacking in artistic merit, consisting, as it does, of a patchwork of engraving, including the portrait, title and the lathe work counters, having no connection with each other, and a vast improvement can be made in designing the future issues of the government. I consider the artistic beauty of a design for a bank note to be as essential to protection against counterfeiting as the manner in which either the engraving or printing is executed. In fact, they must all be of the highest standard of excellence to afford perfect protection. To attain this standard of excellence I have secured the services of some of the best engravers and printers, and have received aid from some of the most talented artists in the country in preparing designs for a new issue of silver certificates, and the result, in my opinion, will be not only a creditable work from an artistic standpoint, but a series of notes which will be beyond the skill of counterfeiters to imitate in a way to be at all dangerous to commerce."

He speaks of the operation of civil service in the bureau as follows: "The application of the civil service regulations to this bureau, so far as it relates to the lower grades of female employees, is productive of some good. It eliminates the bureau as the one branch of the public service into which the uneducated class might enter through the aid of influential public men. But it has not given complete relief, and will not until discretion is given to the secretary of the treasury and to the chief of this bureau to secure the suspension of the civil service rules at times when the eligible list does not furnish the kind of employees needed."

On the question of the transfer of the printing of postage stamps to the bureau, Chief Johnson says: "I am glad to be able to state that, despite many delays and embarrassments, the bureau has met every demand for stamps, and has demonstrated its ability to successfully carry out the obligations undertaken with the post office department. As the estimates of this bureau for the first year of this contract included the cost of new machinery, amounting to something over $40,000, an item of expense connected with this work which will not appear in subsequent years, it is safe to predict an annual saving to the government of over $50,000."

CHINA IS TIRED,

And Will Ask the Powers to Intervene and

CALL OFF THE JAPANESE DOGS OF WAR.

She is Willing to Purchase Peace by the Acknowledgment of Korean Independence and the Payment of a War Indemnity.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Central News says: "There is reason to believe that China has resolved to formally ask the powers which have immediate commercial interests at stake to stop the war. The Chinese minister is said to have communicated the request to the foreign office in London yesterday afternoon. Last evening he started for Paris to seek interviews with M. Hanotaux, minister of foreign affairs, and President Casimir-Perier."

Neither the foreign office, the admiralty, the Chinese legation nor the Japanese legation has heard anything to confirm the published report of the bombardment and capture of Telegram-Wan and Kanyon. The Central News suggests that the report has the same imaginary basis as the story of Port Arthur's fall.

Anxious for Intervention.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The News expresses again its approval of Lord Rosebery's effort for joint intervention, and speaks regretfully of the reluctance of the powers to see the matter in the same light.

"No European government," it says, "can desire to see this disastrous conflict prolonged. Even the United States, despite the Monroe doctrine, must be concerned for the regularity and security of their trade with Japan. Sooner or later—better sooner than later—there must be an international settlement. It will be difficult to contend that interference will be premature now."

Willing to Pay an Indemnity and Grant Korean Independence.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Graphic has this dispatch from Rome: "According to a telegram from Peking, China is disposed to conclude peace upon the basis of the acknowledgment of Korea's independence, and the payment of an indemnity to be fixed by the powers. The powers who are willing to support this arrangement are requested to intervene."

Must Appeal to Japan for Peace.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Daily Chronicle says to-day: "If China desires peace, she should address her request to Japan and not to Europe. However unpleasant that task may be, it is to the victors that the vanquished must appeal."

The Cruiser Esmeralda Sold to Japan.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—A dispatch from Buenos Ayres says that Chili has sold the cruiser Esmeralda to Japan.

THE BEAUTIFUL

Snow Falling at Several Points in New York.

OSDENSEBURG, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Snow has been falling all day, melting as it fell. Following the autumn rains, the snow has rendered the condition of the county roads very bad.

WALTON, N. Y., Nov. 5.—About half an inch of snow fell here this afternoon. It is still snowing hard.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Dispatches from Rouse's Point, Plattsburgh, Au Sable Forks, Westport and other points along the Lake Champlain valley, state that it has been snowing most of the day. It is storming hard here now.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 5.—A severe rain storm came over this city today, and toward night it turned into snow, which soon covered the ground.

SERIOUSLY ILL.

Ex-President James McCosh, of Princeton University, in a Critical Condition.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 6.—A special to the Advertiser from Princeton, N. J., says:

Ex-President James McCosh, of Princeton, is critically ill at his residence here. He has been growing more and more feeble all the fall, and the weakness resultant from old age has been increased by a heavy cold which threatened pneumonia.

"Two trained nurses and the family physician, Dr. Wickoff, are constantly in attendance, and Sunday night he rested more comfortably."

"His condition is considered very serious, however, and prayers were offered for his recovery at the chapel services Sunday."

Found for the Defendant.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 6.—After a trial lasting fourteen days and a deliberation of seventy-six hours a jury has returned a verdict for the defendant in the $50,000 suit brought against Banker F. C. Johnson for alleged alienation of his wife's affections by Rev. Larrabee M. Campbell, a prominent Methodist minister, formerly of Randolph, Mo., but now of this city. The entire trial was sensational in the extreme.

Short in His Accounts.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 6.—A defalcation has been discovered in the Brooklyn club. Louis H. O. Riers, the bookkeeper, is said to be $6,520 short in his accounts, and an expert examination of his books may make the amount more. No trace of the missing bookkeeper has been found since the defalcation was discovered.

To Be Sent Against Derelicts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius will go to sea in a few days with an equipment of high explosives to search for and, if possible, destroy three dangerous derelicts which have been reported off the New Jersey coast and several off Cape Hatteras.

A SENSATION CREATED

By the Disclosure of Boondoggery Among Toronto Aldermen.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 6.—A sensation was created yesterday afternoon at Judge McDougall's special court, now being held to investigate charges of alleged boondoggery among the aldermen of this city in connection with the proposed establishment of a municipal electric light plant.

City Engineer Keating testified on oath that Sales Agent Wheeler of the Brush Electric Light Co. of Cleveland, O., asked him what amount of money would be necessary to inclose with a tender for the purpose of financing a scheme through the council.

The witness further testified that Wheeler told him an alderman had informed him (Wheeler) $15,000 would be required for this purpose. This sum was to be divided pro rata among thirteen aldermen, and an additional $2,000 to go to a certain alderman who would manage the affair.

SUNK IN A COLLISION.

One Vessel Knocked on the Shore and One Sent to the Bottom.

MARINE CITY, Mich., Nov. 6.—The steamer Iron King, owned by J. W. Millen, of Detroit, iron-ore laden, bound down, and the S. C. Baldwin, of Toledo, O., owned by S. R. MacLaren, lumber-laden, also bound down, collided yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. They were both close to the shore, and the Baldwin was rounding to. The force of the shock when the two boats struck was so great that the Iron King was knocked on the shore.

The Baldwin's crew was rescued by some people in small boats, and the Baldwin sank in the middle of the river.

Siberian Troops Concentrated at Vladivostok.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Times correspondent in Tien-Tsin telegraphed yesterday to-day's date: "The telegram to Port Arthur was sent yesterday, probably on the narrow isthmus between Port Adams and Taitien-Wan. This indicates that the Japanese are within a day's march of Taitien-Wan forts."

"It is reported that 70,000 Siberian troops have been concentrated at Vladivostok."

The Times hears from Yokohama that before the capture of Feng Hung Tebung, the Chinese fired the citadel and fled in the night.

The Cruiser Petrel in Chinese Waters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The departure of the little cruiser Petrel from Chefoo Sunday for New Chang is regarded as significant in naval circles, as she will pass within a few miles of Port Arthur, and her destination is several miles up the River Liang, and but thirty-five miles southwest of Munk-doo. New Chang is on the high road to Peking, and the officers of the Petrel will have exceptional advantages in watching the progress of the Japanese campaign in Manchuria. The only American interests near New Chang is in the safety of a number of missionaries.

A Bigamist's Flight.

WARREN, O., Nov. 6.—Charles Murray, a well-known resident of this city, has disappeared, and two women, three children and several officers would like to see him. Murray came to Warren in 1886. In 1898 he was married to a Miss Spear, a respected young lady of this city. Yesterday a message was received from Reading, Pa., asking that Murray be arrested on the charge of bigamy. The authorities at Reading say Murray has a wife and three children there. An officer was sent to arrest Murray, but he had been warned and was missing.

To Search for Capt. Wiggins' Party of Arctic Explorers.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—A dispatch from Christiania to Lloyd's says: "The Russian government has chartered Melnich & Co.'s steamer Lindesnaes to search for the steamer St. Jorden, on which Capt. Wiggins, the Arctic explorer, left Xenosiek on September 15 with his own and two other crews, numbering fifty in all. It is believed that Wiggins is ice-bound in the Kara sea. The captain of the Lindesnaes hopes to get tidings of Wiggins at Chaborowa. Should he fail to do so, he will send parties overland to the Obierian coast."

Voted Against the Government's Plan.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—The standing parliamentary committee on military affairs voted unanimously yesterday that the government plans to let 12,000 soldiers go before completing their full time was inopportune and reprehensible. The committee also voted, with but three dissenting voices, that the step would be illegal. Gen. Mercier, minister of war, told the deputation informing him of the committee's decision, that the plan was the cabinet's, and not his entirely. Nevertheless, he added, if the cabinet should reconsider it he would resign. The ministers will consider the matter to-day.

The Incendiary Arrested.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 6.—The origin of the fire in the box factory of the Hammond packing house at South Omaha has been discovered. Last night Emory Coulson, a night watchman, was arrested and confessed that he set fire to the building, and that he was acting entirely alone. The company is satisfied that the big fire of Friday was not of incendiary origin. That he might see a fire, he never before having seen a large one, Coulson gave as his reason.

Pronounced Absolutely False.

REBUKES SPRINGER.

Full Text of Archbishop Ireland's Interview.

"There Is No Religious Question in American Politics To-day."

New York, Nov. 3.—Special Telegram.—Archbishop Ireland had till today refrained from making any kind of a statement with regard to politics. But his Grace's sympathies were with the Republicans and he had not proclaimed the fact Nor had he been persuaded to express his views in public on the many burning points in the political campaign
which were supposed to interest him closely. The present effort of decadent
Tammany to foist itself upon the world
as a defender of the Catholic church and the antagonist of A. P. A.-ism has proved too much for Archbishop Ireland's patience. The startling statements made to a contemporary by Father Young, of the Paulist community concerning A. P. A.-ism and politics have determined him to throw away reserve. Archbishop Ireland was interviewed at the Fifth Avenue Hotel tonight by a reporter, who asked him if he had read Father Young's statements, and whether he would answer them.

"Yes," said Archbishop Ireland, "I have read the interview of the Paulist Father, Rev. Alfred Young, upon the political issues of the hour. He says in this interview, if I remember aright,
that, although he has heretofore voted
the Republican ticket, he feels compelled
at the approaching election to vote the straight Democratic ticket, and furthermore, that in his opinion, 70,000 Catholic Republicans in the state of New York
would likewise at this election vote the Democratic ticket, and this change of front in politics comes, according to Father Young, from the attitude of the Republican party, which, as he sees it,
throughout the country, and notably in
the treatment of the question of education and church and state, is a betrayal
of the trust of the Catholic people of New York, such as to show him that its adherents
and members sustain, as far as they dare,
the movement set on foot by anti-
Catholic bigots to abridge the civic and religious liberties of Catholics.

IT CHALLENGES ATTENTION.

"The interview, I confess, is significant both because of the authority attaching to the name and position of the one who gives it, and of the importance of the question upon which he touches.
It challenges the attention of those Catholics who, like myself, have in their past record acted on the same lines with Father Young and the 70,000 of whom he makes himself the spokesman, and who, unless a protest be entered, might be taken by the American public as admitting with the venerable Paulist in his present political maneuver and in adhesion to the reasons which he assigns in explanation of it.

Averse as I am to speaking on a quasipolitical matter, I cannot be silent at this juncture. The interests of the church, as I conceive them, are the chief motives of my speech. The scope of Father Young's interview, it is to be noted, reaches beyond one city, or one
state, and covers the political situation
in the whole country.

The introduction of the religious question into the political issues of the country I consider to be without foundation in reason, unjust to a large portion of our fellow-citizens, and disastrous to the Catholic Church. I deny that the Republican party has shown itself as sustaining the movement which has been set afoot by anti-Catholic bigots to abridge the civic and religious liberties
of Catholics.

An anti-Catholic movement does, it appears, exist in the United States—that of A. P. A.-ism, a sort of renewal of the "Know Nothing" of forty or more years ago.

THE A. P. A. AS HE SEES IT.

Right here I will record my own convictions in the matter of A. P. A.-ism.
It is far from having the strength of which it boasts or which its enemies attribute to it. Catholics say too much to the movement, giving it thereby the recognition which it craves
and which is a factor in its growth; a good deal less would be heard about it
if politicians did not discover an opportunity in connection with it to advance their own cause. The safe remedy to counteract the influences of A. P. A.-ism and to kill it off is to remit it evidently
to the good sense and spirit of justice of the American people. Catholics can afford now to despise America
the puny and imbecile opposition of bigots and they owe it to their own dignity
to do so.

But whatever may be said of A. P. A.- ism in itself, the Republican party has neither assumed or brought upon itself
any responsibility for its existence or its workings. No one act of the party can be quoted to support a different view.
In certain Republican conventions a request that a repudiation of A. P. A.-ism be made plain in the party was refused. Nothing in this occurrence alarms Catholics. A great political party cannot be expected to take notice
of every fleeting wind that passes over the field of American politics.

Dignified silence was most in keeping with the dignity of those conditions and
was the strongest rebuke to the pigny
form of this vile bigotry.

BIGOTRY DRAWS NO PARTY LINES.

That there are among Republicans a certain number of A. P. A.-ists, I have no doubt, but I put the question to the country: Are there not A. P. A.-ists
among the Democrats? Is either party responsible for the individual opinions or doings of some of its members? It would be an interesting task to balance
the accounts of the Republican and Democratic parties on the anti-Catholic bigotry of their members. Certain it is that some of the most ferocious outbreaks of "Know Nothing" barbarism occurred in Democratic cities and states. "Know Nothing" tickets polled a much larger per cent of state votes in Democratic Virginia and Maryland than in the Republican states of the North and the West. While New Hampshire was a Democratic state, the constitution refused to Catholic the right to hold office. So soon as it became a Republican state the constitution in the same way amended. In more recent years, in the state of New York, a Catholic, Francis Kernan, who had been nominated for the governor-ship on the Democratic ticket, was laughed at the polls by the anti-

Catholic bigots in the party. A Catholic, W. H. Grace, running for mayor in New York city, found himself cut down to a small majority by bigoted Democratic voters. As the reverse, when a Catholic, Carr, sought the secretary-
ship of state on the Republican ticket,
his fellow-Republicans proved loyal to him.

As a plain matter of fact, there are today, unfortunately, a certain number of anti-Catholic bigots in the country, as there have been always in the past and
as there will be for some time at least
in the future; but they divide themselves between all political parties and vote
in them as bigots, whatever be the formal and public platforms of any or all of those parties. No one party has any special responsibility in this regard.

PRIVILEGES TO CATHOLICS.

Under Republican administrations
Catholics held office in larger proportion to the number of Catholic Republicans in the country than they ever did under Democratic administrations, and the number of Catholic Democrats.
There is, I am myself convinced, fair play for all religious beliefs under the rule of both our great political parties.
I wish to say naught against the one if I do defend the other. On the broad question of religious liberty and justice
they both as parties strive to do what is right, but under the banners of both there are men who do wrong. To single out one for condemnation and to allot
exclusive praise to the other is injustice
and untruth.

Father Young talks of bigotry exhibited in the constitutional amendments
of the state of New York in the questions of education and church and state. He forgets that if Catholics feel aggrieved in those matters they must blame not the Republican party in the Albany commission, but the men who spoke as the accredited spokesmen of the Catholic church, whose propositions
the majority of the commission accepted.

The accusations made by Father
Young, unfounded as they are in fact,
do a serious injustice to the great mass
of Republicans in the United States
who, as we all may know if we see with
our eyes and hear with our ears, are fair-minded citizens, thoroughly loyal to the constitution and the spirit of the country which guarantees to all Americans,
without regard to creed, fullest liberty
and fullest rights.

The introduction of the religious question into the political agitation of the country is disastrous to the Catholic Church. Were it supposable that some good result might follow the evil ones
sure to come outweigh by far the good ones, and Catholics should not allow themselves to be ever put in this false
and hurtful position. Those Catholics who have raised the clamor of religious
war are decidedly wrong; the politicians
who raise or use this clamor for their own benefit injure and insult the church
of which they make a footstool to their own ambition. It is the duty of the Catholics to rebuke and silence this clamor. The church allied to one political party is narrowed in her influence, dragged down from her
high pedestal of universal teacher
and guide, and exposed to meet the
hatred and opposition of other parties.
She courts ruin to herself by identifying
her power and interests with a portion of the population. She has suffered too much in the past from the supposed protection which the Democratic party pretended to exercise over her. Of late
she has been enfranchising herself from
that slavery and there must be no return
to it. I would have the church wrapped up in no one political party, whichever it be. She cannot afford to be put in an-tagonism to another party. She herself
as a church and her sons as citizens
would suffer thereby most serious loss.
Let this present clamor of A. P. A.-ism be supposed to reach the minds of all
Catholics and this will be the result.

That should the Republican party be defeated it will attribute its failure to Catholics and hate them for it, and should it be victorious it will declare its victory to have been gained in spite of Catholics, and will consider itself free
from all obligations of love or favor
toward them.

Catholics detest to-day A. P. A.-ists.
Are they going to turn the whole Republican party into A. P. A.-ists, as they will do if they denounce them as anti-
Catholic bigots?

Catholics say they deprecate secta-
rianism in social and political affairs.
Let them not give themselves the example of it or permit others to make of it an issue in the name of Catholics. The church in the eyes of Catholics should be so high, so sublime, as to be above all party politics, truly universal and American in her breadth of mind and embrace of love. I would not have her exclusively Republican. I would not have her exclusively Democratic.

TAKES ISSUE WITH FATHER YOUNG.

I do not believe with Father Young that 70,000 Catholic Republicans in the State of New York will go over to the Democratic party, frightened by the war-cry of A. P. A.-ism. I have too much regard for their intelligence to believe this. If they have been Republicans, it was no doubt through principle, and men do not deviate from principle under the impulse of words.

I have no mission to give Catholics political counsel. In politics priests and laymen stand on the same ground as citizens, and they vote as the judgment of each one dictates. I can only bid
them to vote with intelligence, sincerity,
honesty and fearlessness the Democratic ticket if they deem it the better one for the country, or the Republican ticket if this seems the better. But I can counsel them, as I do, to allow no cry of religious bigotry to sway them, to be moved by no sectional hatred, to give credence to no vain rumors and accusations. If there are men who drag religion into politics, let it not be the Catholics, who
even under penalty of some sacrifice,
must give to the country the highest example of exalted citizenship and of politics utterly free from religious bias.
The peace and prosperity demand this
of all citizens.

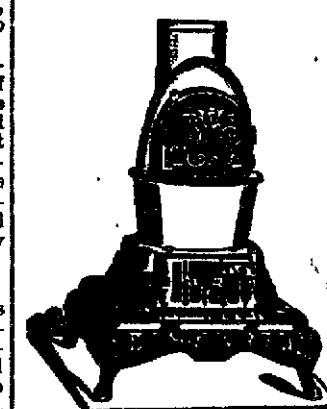

I repeat, there is no religious question
in American politics to-day, and a mention of same should not be heeded nor tolerated.

HEARD THE GLAD NEWS

Receiving the Returns at "Rep-lican" Headquarters—Everybody Happy.

The Tabernacle Crowded Until a Late Hour—Telegrams Received from all the States.

It was glorious news! And now the Republicans and every American laboring man can go to his work with a bright sparkle in his eye and a feeling of security in his heart as he considered what the Republican landslide means. He can hold up his head, knowing that the American interests will always be faithfully guarded. The hard times page has been turned down and united there by Republican votes, and confidence in America for Americans
has been restored by the voice of the people. Now we can all look our children in the face as viewed by
the decisive verdict of yesterday,
that never again will the pernicious and runous doctrine of free trade, backed
up by the south and foreign countries,
ever get a foot hold in this country.

The verdict was heard at the tabernacle last night, by a shouting crowd
which filled the great building. There was a telegraph instrument and also a telephone in the building. The news
from the states came in first,
and the bulletins were read
during the evening by W. F. Calhoun,
C. N. Twadell and Alex McIntosh.
The latter making comments which increased the enthusiasm and made 'em
"holler." It was difficult to control the crowd, but W. F. Martin, with the big drum, came to the rescue, and when he saw the club the crowd knew
that it was a signal for them
to keep quiet awhile so that the bulletins could be heard. It was all one way Republican even in West Virginia,
where Wilson, the author of the free trade bill, got it in the neck and was elected to stay at home, or go to London
to make another un-American speech.
The good news from Chicago set the people wild with enthusiasm, New York ditto. It was quickly realized that there had been a Republican landslide,
greater than has been known in politics
for over 30 years.

But when the news from Decatur
and Macon county began to arrive, the applause was vociferous and prolonged.
At 11 o'clock it was known that every man on the county ticket from top to bottom was elected by pluralities ranging from 600 to 1300. There were scenes of rejoicing which fired everybody with enthusiasm. The Republicans actually wore themselves out shouting.

During the evening G. C. Robertson
gave an Irish recitation which made lots
of fun.

News was also received at the newspaper offices and at Breunemans and Andrews.

It was a clean sweep!
The Democrats felt something drop.
And they got it where the chicken
got the ax.

America is for America, not for Cleveland, Wilson, Springer & Co. and Europe. You heard the verdict.

The Democrats at the Review offices
went home early last night. One Dem-
my said, as he left the den: "Don't it beat h—!"

Now the Democrats can have some of the Republican pie, and saw off on soup-
houses and the eating of 1892 campaign
rosters.

Many an honest Democrat is really
glad that the free trade game is down.
Wonder how the "Solid South" likes the election echoes from all parts of the country.

Matrimonial.

The marriage of Miss Eva Woolington, daughter of G. E. Woolington, and Arthur Reynolds, occurred Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, 437 East William street.
Rev. D. F. Howe, of the First Methodist church, performed the ceremony, using the regular church service. The wedding was a quiet one, only the relatives
and immediate friends being present.
The bride was unattended and was attired in a white China silk, low neck and short sleeves, and carried Marshal Niel
roses. The couple stood in the northeast corner of the parlor under a canopy of evergreen and cut flowers, from which were suspended a star and crescent of flowers. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. Mr. and Mrs.
Reynolds will settle down at 319 North Broadway for the present. Mr. Reynolds is in the employ of the Nelson Morris company. Miss Lillian Woolington, of Monticello, was here to attend the wedding.

Willie Collier Coming.

William Collier has now put farce
comedy behind him and Monday evening, Nov. 12, will appear at the Grand in the comedy drama, "A Back Number,"
written for him by Edward E. Kidder,
author of "Peaceful Valley," "A Poor Relation," etc. His work on this higher plane has already met the highest commendation. Mr. Collier shows the breadth of his comedy talent by assuming two characters, wholly unlike in conception, and demanding entirely different treatment. In each part there is ample scope for humor, of which Mr.
Collier fully takes advantage. Interwoven with the many laughs is a pretty pastoral story of love and pathos. The plot is entirely natural and pleasing, as in the end all ends happily. Every part of the play is of such importance that it was necessary to select a company of unusual excellence.

The Cross Roads of Life.

In Garrick and Collier's new realistic
melodrama, "The Cross Roads of Life,"
which will be the attraction at the Grand opera house on Thursday evening,
Nov. 8, the author has admirably portrayed several of the more interesting
questions which all men seek to know.
The story of the play is a happy blending of comedy and pathos, the climaxes
are exciting, but at the same time there is absent those blood-curdling episodes
which are so often the case with productions of this character. The scenic and mechanical effects are of a most realistic
character, including the Life Saving Station near Sandy Hook, in New York harbor, the Park avenue tunnel on the New York Central railroad, and the ocean greyhound, "The City of Rome,"
at sea.

STORIES OF LONG AGO.

What James Rea Did Near Decatur at an Early Date.

He Was the Victor in a Wood-Chopping
Contest—Out Wrestled Everybody

Sullivan Burgess has presented us with a copy of the Mercury, San Jose, California, which gives an interesting account of the descendants of James Rea, who for many years was a resident of Macon county, and was personally known to many older people of Decatur and vicinity. Mr.
Rea was a brother of the late Samuel
Rea, whose widow is now the wife of J.
D. Tait. The reunion was held at the home of James W. Rea, son of Mr. Rea, who died in California in 1879, at the age of 81. This sketch of Mr. Rea was read at the reunion:

THE JAMES REA FAMILY TREE.

James Rea, the first American ancestor of the Rea family, was born in Greenbrier county, Virginia, on the 9th day of March, 1799. He was of Irish descent
and parentage, his immediate ancestors
emigrating to America from Dublin, Ireland, a few years before his birth. The stock from which James Rea sprung was remarkable for the strong and active physical traits of its men and women,
and not less so for their strength of mind and character. James Rea inherited both of these qualities in an unusual degree, and as he grew up in the state of his birth developed into a man
of powerful physique and of sterling and original traits of character. In his young manhood he married Hannah Hutsonpillar, a girl of sturdy German stock, and shortly after removing to Ohio and later to Central Illinois and began the duty of founding a home.
At that time Illinois and its adjacent
states were largely covered with forests,
and woodchopping and lumbering were
the great industries of that section of the country. Among the woodmen of Illinois and Missouri James Rea soon became famous for his great physical powers. Upon one notable occasion he demonstrated his superiority in this respect in a most remarkable way. Five hundred woodchoppers from the forests
and mills of these two states had a great gathering near Decatur, Ill., and
there held a wood-choppers' contest
among the most expert woodmen of all
that region, the conditions of the match
were that each contestant was to chop
from sunrise until sunset, and the man who chopped the largest cordage should have the entire cut of the day. James Rea was the successful chopper, far out-
stripping all his competitors, having cut
seven cords of wood by sunset and receiving as the prize for his work an amount of wood from which he realized $1000. This wood was corded by Thomas Rea, his son. That night he entered the ring as a wrestler, challenged all comers
and overthrew them all. In fact, so great was the strength and so wonderful the agility and endurance of James Rea in his whole life he was never overcome in a wrestling contest or a feat of strength.

During the years of his manhood,
spent in Illinois the character of James Rea developed fully and was found to be cast in the same strong mold as his physical powers. He became the intimate friend and companion of the men of Illinois who not only controlled its business and political destinies but who became the great men of the nation itself. He was a neighbor of and companion of Abraham Lincoln, and was closely allied to business and in politics. He was also the intimate of Governor Oglesby and others of the leading politicians of that time in Illinois. He delighted in intellectual as he did in physical contests and was powerful either as an ally
or an opponent, not because he possessed any large fund of book
learning, but because of his deep conceptions of justice and his deep insight into the things which go to make up the fabric of the truths of life.
In his religious views he was a Unitarian, and while not in the least narrow
or bigotted he had intense religious convictions, which he was prepared at all times to defend with a wealth of Bible
reference, which made it seem to some
as though he knew the Scriptures by heart. With these convictions he united social qualities of a high order. He was witty and full of jokes, and was fertile
of stories and illustrations to suit every company and cause. He believed that life was a thing of sunshine and experience; something worth living and enjoying; and he went through it with large-
hearted friendship and kindness to all.
Coupled with these qualities James Rea had another, which made him a natural leader of men, and which called around him an increasing circle of the warmest friends and admirers wherever he went.

James Rea was as brave as a lion, and in all of his long experience he never knew what fear was; in fact, his nature
was absolutely free from the sentiment
of fear.

When the Mexican war broke out he went into the war with an Illinois company commanded by Col. E. D. Baker, and served through it as a sergeant under him. Many a Mexican veteran yet lives to relate incidents of the wonderful strength, the absolute bravery, the unselfish devotion and the peculiar characteristics of James Rea, displayed during the conflict with Mexico.

When that war was over he returned to Illinois, and remained there until 1853, when he came to California and joined his two sons, Thomas and Samuel, who had come earlier to the Golden State. During his life in Illinois ten children had been born to him and his wife, Hannah.
They were, in the order of their birth, Rachel, Thomas, Mary, William, Rebecca, Malinda, Martha, Samuel,
Nannie and Maggie. This daughter
Rachel and the two youngest members of their family came with their father to California. The rest who were then living and not already here remained in Illinois.

In the heart of the Santa Clara valley
James Rea settled down to spend his remaining years, and there he lived surrounded by his family and by the growing number of his sons and daughters,
and under the same sunshine and healthful breezes which had been the health
of his father, and his grandfather, and his great-grandfather, until February 18, 1879, when he died near Gilroy
at the ripe age of 80 years.

GERMAN AGRARIANS
Demand Retaliation Against America for the Sugar Tax.

BREITEN, Nov. 7.—Chancellor von Hohenlohe-Schillingfurst is being inundated with petitions from agrarian societies. Since the petition of the Agrarian League was presented to him, the chancellor has received demands from the East Prussian Central league and the German Agricultural Council that the government require the United States to treat Germany upon a footing of equality. These societies require, besides, that a protest be made against the imposition by the United States of a 10 per cent. tax and that repressive measures be adopted in the form of a general prohibition of importation of corn, grain, meat and cattle, and, further, that the premium on home sugar be increased and a measure for a tax on saccharine products be introduced.

A FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

In the Nature of a Race War in the Ohio Penitentiary.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—A free-for-all fight occurred in Hayden's shop at the penitentiary yesterday forenoon. The row began between John Caldwell and George Johnson, Hamilton county colored convicts. When Foreman John Bruck attempted to separate the men they quit, pummeling each other and turned upon him. Robert Hall, a Jackson county convict, took the part of the forlorn against the colored men, and knocked Caldwell down with a hammer. The fracas then resolved itself into a race war until the arrival of guards put a stop to the disturbance. The warden and both deputies were away.

To Put on Mourning Garb.

From the start there was a decline with hardly a pause to the low point for the day, and then corn ranged near the bottom for the rest of the session. Cables were uncommittal on corn. The trade was good, taken all in all. Near the close it turned up and made the total deals average up well.
The oats pit was open to traders to-day, but very few seemed to take advantage of this fact. The market being dead and featureless. May was the month receiving most of the trading and after a will cover the number of its deals.

REPUBLICANS' DAY.

A Complete Revolution Shown by Yesterday's Vote.

THE REPUBLICANS CLAIM EVERYTHING

And Are Not Seriously Disputed in Any Quarter—Allen Thurman Says the Country Has Gone to Pot.

Pennsylvania with 200,000; New York, 150,000, and Ohio with 150,000 lead the Van, with other States in line.

The House of Representatives Claimed by the Republicans—Chairman Wilson and Tom Johnson, the Free Traders, Defeated.

Many Congressional Districts Never Claimed by the Republicans Said to Have Joined the Majority—Late Election News.

ARKANSAS.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 7.—The election in this State yesterday resulted in the selection of the following congressional delegation:

First district, P. D. McCulloch, dem.; second, John S. Little, dem.; third, Thomas C. McKee, dem.; fourth, William L. Terry, dem.; fifth, Hugh A. Dinsmore, dem.; sixth, Robert Neill, dem. John S. Little, who succeeds Clifton B. Breckinridge, is the only change from the present delegation.

COLORADO.

PUEBLO, Col., Nov. 6.—Pueblo voted 85 per cent. of the full registration, the woman vote being very large. Thomas M. Bowen, rep., for congress, second district, and McIntyre, rep., for governor, will have 1,500 to 2,000 plurality. The election of the entire republican ticket is claimed. Returns will be very late.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 6.—Chairman Howbert claims the entire state republican ticket elected by 18,000 majority.

CONNECTICUT.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 6.—Biggott, dem., for congress in the second, is defeated beyond doubt. All Connecticut towns show republican gains. Returns from twenty towns out of 169 in this State show a republican gain of 1,245 over the vote of 1902.

Returns from seven towns out of forty-one in the second congressional district show a republican gain of 757 over the vote for congressman in 1902.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 6.—The republican has carried the state on the state ticket by from 5,000 to 10,000, besides gaining three congressmen.

FLORIDA.

ORLANDO, Fla., Nov. 6.—This was an ideal election day. The election was for congressional candidates only. There was a light vote polled with the election of Cooper and Parkman, dems., as assured.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The republicans have carried Cook county by 10,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Twenty-five deputy sheriffs sent to the drainage district to preserve order among the canal laborers were arrested at the polls in Lamont at the instance of the mayor and a democratic justice of the peace, who claimed jurisdiction, and refused to release them, although bail was offered in any amount.

F. Norner, republican candidate for congress in the second district, offered objections to this proceeding, and upon his refusal to leave the room in which the polls were located, was seized by the burly chief of police of Lamont and thrown into the streets. The deputies are still in jail.

There were several disturbances in the city during the day. A mob of seven diggers gathered in front of the polling place in the thirty-third precinct of the Thirty-fourth ward shortly after the voting had ceased, and overpowered the judges and clerks and carried away the ballot boxes.

In the Twenty-third ward there were several brutal fights during the day. A republican worker in the fifth precinct was knocked down and rendered insensible.

In the second ward, shortly after the polls opened this morning a free-for-all fight occurred as the result of a dispute as to which party should guard the ballot box. Policemen separated the combatants and balloting was resumed.

In the first ward Isaac A. Powell, sergeant-at-arms of the city council, and Charles L. Banker came to blows and a score of men joined in the fight. The fighters were separated without serious injury to any one, and no arrests were made.

Three republican election officials were arrested by the police early in the morning and prevented from communicating with their friends. They were finally released on $200 bail, after it was said, Chief of Police Brennan had been threatened by the republicans with prosecution.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—Forty-two precincts show an average republican gain of twenty-one in a precinct. Allen Thurman says at this rate the State will be republican by 60,000. He predicts the election of a republican legislature in both branches, and says the state is safe by 40,000. The rate of increase, if maintained throughout the state, would make the entire congressional delegation republican.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—Indications point to a heavy republican majority in the lower house of the legislature and a majority of eight to ten in the state senate.

IOWA.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 6.—The day was pleasant throughout Iowa, but a light vote was polled. The returns came in slowly because of the late hour at which the polls close, but enough are at hand to indicate the election of the entire republican state ticket by 50,000, with the exception of Judge Granger to the supreme court and R. J. Hallinger for the supreme court, whose opponents were endorsed by the populists. The republicans elect ten congressmen, and the result in the second district is in doubt, with the chances in favor of Walter I. Hayes, dem., by a very small plurality.

KANSAS.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 6.—This city, the home of Gov. Lewelling, will give Morrill, rep. candidate for governor, 1,200 majority. Republicans claim the defeat of Congressman Jerry Simpson in the seventh congressional district by 2,000 votes.

KENTUCKY.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 6.—Denny's majority over Owens in eleven of twenty-six precincts in Fayette county is 513. His friends say he will get the county by 1,500, and win by from 2,000 to 3,000.

LEWISTON, Ky., Nov. 7.—Returns received up to midnight indicate the probable election of six democratic and five republican congressmen.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6.—Returns indicate the election of five and possibly six democratic congressmen in this state.

MASSACHUSETTS.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 7.—The latest from Boston, by way of Worcester, says that the democrats concede Greenhalge 60,000 plurality.

MARYLAND.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 6.—The democrats concede George T. Wellington's (rep.) election by 2,000 in his district.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 6.—Maryland's solid democratic front has been broken. Three republican congressmen have been elected.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—Careful compilation, reports, received by both state committees, indicate the election John T. Rich, rep., for governor, over S. O. Fisher, dem., by from 30,000 to 50,000; the whole republican state ticket elected; a solid republican delegation to congress, and Wayne county, in which Detroit is located, republican on all offices except treasurer.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 6.—Scattering returns from forty of the eighty counties of Minnesota indicate that Gov. Nelson is re-elected, but it appears that his plurality will be a very small one, probably less than 5,000. The returns so far received show a remarkable slump of the vote to Owen, the populist candidate for governor. Two-thirds of this has come from the democratic party, and the democratic candidate for governor has received scarcely 60,000 votes in a total of 285,000.

MISSOURI.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 6.—Indications are that the fifth congressional district has returned John C. Tarsney to congress by a greatly reduced majority over Van Horn, the republican candidate.

NORTH DAKOTA.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 6.—Meager dispatches only have been received from all over the state. The proposition to re-submit the prohibition law to the people at the next general election has not quite a figure. The democrats placed it in their platform, while the republicans and independents endorse the prohibition law. A dispatch from Cassellton, Cass county, says R. M. Pollock, who framed the law, has been defeated for state's attorney in that city. He has lost Fargo, and is probably defeated.

NEW YORK.

ELINE CLIFF, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Shortly before noon Mr. Morton was driven to Rhinebeck town hall and voted in the first district. Then he returned home and passed the afternoon quietly with his family and callers. In the evening he received the returns in the billiard room. Among the first returns of interest was the vote of Rhinebeck, the three districts giving Morton 149 plurality, against 82 when he ran for vice-president.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The democratic county committee practically concede that Morton has carried Erie county by at least 10,000. The republican city and county ticket will have a clean sweep.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Sun says: Goff, for recorder, is running ahead of his ticket. His plurality will be about 50,000.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 6.—The republicans have made a clean sweep in this city. Morton carries the city by about 18,000. Sexton's plurality is 2,000 less. Herman, pop., is elected legislator, and the republicans have probably elected three congressmen in districts formerly democratic.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A United Press bulletin says Gilroy concedes the city to Strong and the entire union ticket. Hill gives the state to Morton by 100,000 majority. Goff's election is also conceded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Mercury says that Sulzer is probably the only democratic nominee for congress elected in New York city.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Empire State was swept yesterday by its greatest republican tidal wave in its political history. Hon. Levi P. Morton has been elected governor by a plurality very close to 150,000. The congressional delegation has been changed from nineteen democrats and fifteen republicans to twenty-nine republicans and five democrats. The state assembly probably will stand fourteen republicans to twenty-four democrats.

The republican gains have been greater in the democratic strongholds in the cities than in the country districts, but in no county and in no town has the democracy held its own. New York city, which was counted on for 60,000 to 70,000 for Hill, gave him only 2,500 plurality over Morton. William L. Strong, republican and citizens' candidate for mayor, is elected by 42,000 over Hugh J. Grant, Tammany's candidate. John W. Goff, of Lexow committee fame, is elected recorder, and the entire reform city ticket wins by handsome majorities.

Brooklyn, which gave Grover Cleveland 30,000 in '02, was carried by Morton by 16,500.

Five New York city democratic congressmen were defeated by republicans, and Brooklyn congressmen fared no better. A full vote was polled, and the result was known early in the evening.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Returns received from all parts of the country up to midnight indicate that the republicans will control the house of representatives in the fifty-fourth congress by a good working majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Total vote on Mayor Strong 152,691; Grant, 111,257.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—Though but a small proportion of the whole number of precincts of the state have been reported at this hour (6 p. m.), it is quite evident that the republicans have carried Ohio by a greater plurality than was given McKinley last year. That plurality was 80,995. The 100,000 mark will probably be reached and passed, while the vote on congressmen may not follow the head of the ticket closely. This result indicates, of course, that the republicans will at least carry all the congressional districts they claimed—sixteen out of twenty-one—and probably more.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 7.—Tom L. Johnson concedes his defeat by between 4,000 and 5,000. Eleven voting precincts heard from at 9:30 give Burton 1,756, Johnson 1,137. Johnson's loss from his vote two years ago averaged 85 to the precinct.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—Democratic State Chairman Taylor has telegraphed the Cincinnati Enquirer conceding the state to the republicans by 90,000 plurality.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—At 9 p. m. Chairman Allen W. Thurman said to the United Press reporter: "The whole country seems to have gone to pot. There is but one bright spot apparent. South Carolina still stands democratic. We have heard from only 155 precincts in Ohio, but that is enough. If it keeps up the republicans will carry the state by 150,000. It means that there will not be a democratic congressman elected in Ohio. I think Outwater is defeated by at least 2,500."

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Pennsylvania yesterday elected twenty-three congressmen. Of that number the republicans returned twenty, the democrats securing three.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—The democratic disensions in the third congressional district, now represented by Mr. William McAleer, dem., and for so many years represented by the late Samuel J. Randall, were shown to-day to have been even greater than the most hopeful republican had anticipated. McCullen, the democratic candidate, is defeated by Halterman, rep., by 5,000 majority.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns received up to 12:30 a. m. show a net republican gain over 1902 of 80,021. The same ratio of gain in the districts yet to hear from would indicate a plurality in the state for Hastings for governor of at least 200,000. Philadelphia gives Hastings from 65,000 to 75,000 plurality.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 6.—Returns are coming from all portions of the state, which, though meager, indicate that the state republican ticket, including two congressmen-at-large, are elected by not less than 12,000 plurality.

TENNESSEE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 6.—In West Tennessee the voting was extremely light, and, as the strong democratic vote of the state is in this section, there is anxiety among democrats as to the success of Peter Turney for governor. Democratic congressmen have been chosen in the eighth, ninth and tenth districts.

TEXAS.

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 6.—The weather throughout the state is fine, and a heavy vote has been polled. The Galveston News predicts the usual democratic majority for state officers and the legislature; also the election of democratic congressmen in all the districts with the possible exception of the ninth and tenth districts. It is doubtful if anything definite can be given to-night.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 6.—Returns indicate heavy democratic losses at nearly every point. The returns are slow, and while the democrats appear to have lost heavily, the returns are not sufficiently full to indicate that they have lost any of the districts.

Returns from Botetourt county indicate a very close vote. The democratic majority in that county in 1892 was 5,504.

WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Fragmentary returns from the first, second and fourth West Virginia districts indicate that the republicans have carried all three of them, and Wilson is probably beaten, but complete returns may be required to settle the result. The probabilities are that West Virginia will be represented by a solid republican delegation in the next house.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The legislature is republican by 15 to 20 on joint ballot. This will insure a republican United States senator to succeed Senator Cameron.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Dayton, rep., has been defeated to congress from this district, defeating W. L. Wilson. Miller has also defeated Harvey in the fourth district, and the republican committee claims all four congressmen.

RHODE ISLAND.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 6.—The democratic defeat to-day was complete. Every city in the state went republican.

WASHINGTON.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Indications are that the state has gone republican by about 9,000 plurality. The next legislature will be republican.

A PUZZLING DISPATCH.

Differently Interpreted by State and Army Officers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Secretary Gresham yesterday morning received the following cablegram from Minister Denby at Peking:

"The Japanese have taken Foo Chow on the Gulf of Liang-tung. Approaching Shang-Hai-Kwan. Two campaigns against Moukden and Tien Tsin."

State department officials were puzzled by the dispatch, and think King Chow, at the head of the Gulf of Liang-tung, should be substituted for Foo Chow. King Chow is directly west of New Chang, and is on the road from Moukden to Peking. Army officials, however, who are watching the campaign systematically, adhered to the belief that Foo Chow is correct, and that point is on the main highroad which encircles the gulf, and is the natural junction between the forces that crossed the Yalu river from Korea and the army which landed recently near Port Arthur. Foo Chow is north of Port Arthur a little distance, and an army after taking Foo Chow would naturally be "approaching Shang-Hai-Kwan," if Tien Tsin was its objective point.

The military intelligence experts, however, have no doubt, from Mr. Denby's dispatch, that in addition to the Moukden campaign, a separate one against Tien Tsin is already well advanced, and they are confident that about the time Tien Tsin is invested with one Japanese army, the other having taken Moukden, will be on the march toward Peking. Shang-Hai-Kwan is the point where the great wall reaches the coast, and is a place of considerable strategic importance.

One Report Confirmed, Another Denied.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The foreign office, in response to inquiries, confirms the report that the Chinese government has requested the powers having immediate commercial interests at stake to intervene for the purpose of securing a settlement of the war with Japan.

The Exchange Telegraph Co. (limited) is authorized to deny a statement of Renter's Telegram Co., printed in the St. James Gazette, that the British government had sent an ultimatum to the viceroy of Pechili demanding a settlement of the Chun King affair. No ultimatum, the Exchange Telegraph Co. says, is required, as the Chinese government has tendered an apology for the outrage, and has agreed to pay the indemnity demanded, and that the Chun King shall be saluted by the forts.

Americans from the Steamer Sydney Arrested in Kobe.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a dispatch from Yokohama to a news agency here saying that the steamer Sydney has been allowed to leave Kobe, where she had been detained and searched for articles contraband of war. The Americans who were among her passengers were taken into custody, and one Chinaman was also arrested.

A dispatch from Kobe to the same agency says the first Japanese army has reached a port above Taiten Wan and established communication with the second army.

Requiem Services for the Dead and Dinners for the Living.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—The programme of the ceremonies attendant upon the removal from Livadia of the remains of the late czar were published yesterday morning. The body will first be removed to Yalta, whence it will be shipped to Sebastopol and thence to Moscow and St. Petersburg. At all stations where stops are made in attendance and requiem services will be held. The czar will also provide dinners for the poor wherever the train stops.

Nicholas and His Betrothed Bride.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—A proclamation by Emperor Nicholas II. was posted yesterday announcing that Princess Alix had been received into the Orthodox church. Both the czar and his promised bride prayed that Heaven would console him for his father's death. The proclamation enjoins the faithful everywhere to supplicate God's blessing on the new czar and his betrothed bride.

Dr. Hermann von Schelling's Successor.

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—The National Zeitung says that Herr Koch, president of the reichsbank, will succeed Dr. Hermann von Schelling as Prussian minister of justice.

These doctors have revolutionized special practice here, and although others try to share it, they cannot succeed. The people of this city and vicinity are too intelligent to be deceived by those pretenders who have failed to get practice in even obscure country villages, and who, as a last resort, branch out as leading specialists and make a bid for practice by offering all kinds of inducements, even of refunding money. That for itself is evidence of fraud. Don't be gulled. Don't be humbugged. They are here to-day and away to-morrow. Your money is gone and you are in a worse condition sick by the relatives, the Great German and English Doctors. They publish no names of cured patients, but come regular, cure their patients and feel satisfied.

Recommendations from people living hundreds of miles away look very suspicious.

THE LARGE PRACTICE OF

The Great German & English Doctors.

No more deluding of the sick! No more experimenting! It is indeed a medical revolution, smashing old systems, terrifying old practitioners and welcomed by all the people.

These doctors have revolutionized special medicine here, and although others try to share it, they cannot succeed. The people of this city and vicinity are too intelligent to be deceived by ignorant pretenders who have failed to get practice in even obscure country villages, and who, as a last resort, branch out as leading specialists and make a bid for practice by offering all kinds of inducements, even of refunding money. That for itself is evidence of fraud. Don't be gulled. Don't be humbugged. See here today and away tomorrow. Your money is gone and you are in a worse condition. Stick by the reliable, the Great German and English Doctors. They publish no names of cured patients; but come regular, cure their patients and feel satisfied.

Have you severe BRONCHIAL trouble, hacking cough, pains in the chest, loss of flesh? Have you been warned of approaching consumption?

Are you a sufferer from ASTHMA, and have you been led to believe that your disease is incurable?

Do you suffer from RHEUMATISM, for which remedies and prescriptions have proved unavailing?

The city council of Montreal has recommended the taxing of religious institutions at half their value. This step is being taken to replenish the treasury, which is entirely empty. Here is what the Post of that city says of the project: "Owing to the bad state of the finances of the city, the board of chairman at its last meeting recommended that all properties now exempt from taxation be taxed one-half of their assessed value. These properties include churches of all denominations, parsonages, hospitals, educational establishments, etc., the whole to the amount of $34,185,894. There will be a tremendous outcry should this arrangement be adopted by the city council, but the aldermen say they see no other way to raise funds." Similar steps will have to be taken in the United States if the various religious bodies continue to acquire large landed interests.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.

We guarantee this to be the best Cough Syrup manufactured in the whole wide world. This is saying a great deal, but it is true. For Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Sore Chest, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, we positively guarantee Ballard's Horehound Syrup to be without equal on the whole face of the globe. WILLIAM HAWLEY SMITH, of Peoria, is to lecture in Decatur for the library fund about Nov. 21st.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors that she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 180 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at King & Hubbard's Drug Store. Regular size 60c and $1.00.

The October receipts of the Paxton postoffice were the largest in its history, amounting to $749.
